

National Jurisprudence summary

German case no. AK 22/19

Decision of the Federal Court of Justice that the remand detention period must be continued. Participation as a member in IS and committing war crimes in the period March 2015 to May 2016 in Syria and Iraq. In cooperation with her husband, she accepted a residential property from the organization whose owner or entitled party had fled or been expelled (war crime against property and other rights).